

Seven of Hearts features wines from distinct appellations within Oregon's Willamette Valley and neighboring regions, including specific vineyards and portions of vineyards that show unique characteristics. Using traditional winemaking methods, our goal is small production wines of great purity, complexity, and elegance.

The label on the bottle, with its neo-classical elements, symbolizes our passion for the traditional Burgundian style of Pinot noir.

We make wines from our estate vineyard under the Luminous Hills label, which is about that specific site. Seven of Hearts is about exploring other vineyards, other AVAs, and other varietals, including highly regarded and well-managed vineyards in the Willamette Valley AVAs of Eola-Amity Hills, Dundee Hills, Chehalem Mountains, and Ribbon Ridge. We are very fortunate to be working with growers from outstanding vineyard sites where great attention to detail and care is given to the fruit.

Varietals that are classically grown in the Rhone region of France are featured under the Chatte d'Avignon sub-label of Seven of Hearts: Viognier, Roussanne, Grenache, Syrah, and Mourvedre. Our new Chateau Figareaux line highlights Bordeaux varietals, starting with a 2010 Cabernet Franc, Columbia Valley, Oregon, for release early 2012.

This special single vineyard wine is from a prized old vineyard (formerly known as Jacob-Hart) in the Chehalem Mountains. Owner Todd Hansen is a grower who gives the utmost attention and care to the vineyard, producing perfectly balanced vines and resulting fruit. This blend is a co-ferment of some of the vineyards oldest and best blocks of Wadensvil, Pommard and Mariafeld (aka clone 23). Grown on volcanic jory soil, these lots combine to make a wine of tremendous purity, complexity and finesse.
