

Seven of Hearts features wines from distinct appellations within Oregon's Willamette Valley and neighboring regions, including specific vineyards and portions of vineyards that show unique characteristics. Using traditional winemaking methods, our goal is small production wines of great purity, complexity, and elegance.

The label on the bottle, with its neo-classical elements, symbolizes our passion for the traditional old world style wines.

We make wines from our estate vineyard under the Luminous Hills label, which is about that specific site. Seven of Hearts is about exploring other vineyards, other AVAs, and other varietals, including highly regarded and well-managed vineyards in the Willamette Valley AVAs of Eola-Amity Hills, Dundee Hills, Chahalem Mountains, and Ribbon Ridge. We are very fortunate to be working with growers from outstanding vineyard sites where great attention to detail and care is given to the fruit.

Varietals that are classically grown in the Rhone region of France are featured under the Chatte d'Avignon sub-label of Seven of Hearts: Viognier, Roussanne, Grenache, Syrah, and Mourvèdre, and a Rhone-style GSM blend. Our Chateau Figareaux line highlights Bordeaux varietals Sauvignon Blanc, Cabernet Sauvignon, Merlot, Cabernet Franc, featuring a classic Bordeaux-style red blend called Tradition.

Nebbiolo wines from the Piedmont region of Italy are amongst the greatest wines in the world. It seems a natural habitat for this somewhat elusive varietal, particularly in the two most famous appellations of Piedmont for this varietal, Barolo and Barbaresco, where this grape reaches its pinnacle. While the new world will never produce something exactly like those wines, a cool corner of the Coyote Canyon Vineyard in the Horse Heaven Hills of the Columbia Valley in Washington, has something that hints of the promise for this grape in our backyard. While still supported by firm tannins, and the tarry earthy notes characteristic of the varietal, this wine is on the delicate side, showing off some rose and cherry notes, all supported by velvety texture.
